The second installment for the game...however this is weird: It's got more a gameboy type of gameplay with the keys (which you can't assign). Still the achievements are there and they are plenty.

The only reason I'm recommending this is basically 2 reasons:

- 1) Achievements for just screwing around in the game
- 2) It's a break from other online games which can get toxic after a while.

If you have the money to buy this on sale, then do that rather.. RPG for no one. Bought this game with a coupon and it's worth the money :)

+ Steam Trading Cards

+ Steam Achievements. nice game

Easy achievements

Interesting

. One should be paid to play this game.. Do you want 4990 achievements for launching a game? Then this is the game for you!! Hope you ain't an achievement hunter though cause the last 10 chievos require you to actually play the game. Can't recommend this in good conscience.

Stupidest game ever. The type of thing that a 5 year old would play on coolmathgames.com. I got this game because I won a coupon for it and I wanted to add it to my 100% collection, but unless your achievement hunter like me, do not get it..

Gooooood game!

+5000 achievements

+cards

100/10. massan dfi hassan. This game was either made by a Kindergartener, or an Afghan war criminal to torture captured US soldiers....

What I'm trying to say is...

10/10 buy it now.... pretty good game. good game for Achievements.. The second installment for the game...however this is weird: It's got more a gameboy type of gameplay with the keys (which you can't assign). Still the achievements are there and they are plenty.

Hello guys, I'm here to announce that I have decided to remove all the DLCs from the store. If you already own one or more DLCs the content from these DLCs will continue to be available for you.

After 2 years of feedback from the players (mostly negative) about the DLCs and after some considerations I have decided to remove it permanently from the store.

I thought I wouldn't update my games this year anymore, but, since I have some stuff ready and a lot to do yet I am releasing an update for Ninja Stealth 3 with the new framework.

You are probably thinking, what is that? Well, it's simple.

All my games have some code that are shared among them, I was working on that to improve it and to make some changes to adapt for the games Call of the Mighty Warriors and Cube Land Arena. That code is the framework that which I use in all my games as a start point.

It also makes easier to keep the older games uptodate, every time something is improved for the games I working on, it will be shared with the old games.

What will improve with these changes?

- A better version control, that is just for me to keep track on what was done, it won't make any difference for you guys.
- A better integration with Steam, It was already working fine, but I have improved it a little more.
- A better saving system, it's meant to be faster and more reliable. Although, you will have to restart the game, except Andarilho, I hope.
- The best improvement is on the audio management, it will better managed and it will no longer have those spikes when some sfx is played.
- There are some other fixes and improvements, but, you won't notice it.

The first game to have the new framework is Ninja Stealth 3, soon the other games will be updated with the same improvement.
